MOTIVATION

I love to travel, explore and share with other people their life experiences.

FRUSTRATIONS

Even when we have the best cellphone plan for international travelers, it doesn’t always work. We also don’t get free wifi in all of the places I stay. The lack of being connected causes us to lose contact with our followers and sponsors for a couple days.

FAVORITE APPS

My wife and I love traveling. We’ve become travel bloggers, reviewing our trips and posting photos and stories about our experiences on social media. We have a following of over 65K and it grows everyday! Although we have nice professional cameras and laptops, our phones are so small and versatile we use them for everything. Since we often travel to areas where connectivity is poor or access is obsolete, we have unlimited data plans. Being able to post a new photo or story while away is vital. We love staying connected and updating our followers and family about our adventures!
